Public Notice

Posted -- June 22, 2015

Effective July 1st, 2015, the Placer Superior Court will begin providing court interpreters at no cost to parties with limited English proficiency in civil and family law case types, subject to funding and resource availability. The court will attempt to provide interpreters in such cases pursuant to the following priority set forth by the Legislature in Assembly Bill 1657:

1. Domestic violence cases and family law cases in which there is a domestic violence issue; Elder or dependent adult abuse cases involving physical abuse or neglect; and civil harassment cases involving temporary restraining orders
2. Unlawful detainer or eviction cases
3. Termination of parental rights proceedings
4. Actions relating to conservatorships or guardianships
5. Actions for child custody or visitation
6. Elder or dependent adult abuse cases not involving physical abuse
7. All other family law actions

Parties that would like to request an interpreter in one of the above case types should file Local Form PL-CW005: Request for Interpreter (Civil & Family Law). The form and instructions are available in English and Spanish on the court's website:

http://www.placer.courts.ca.gov/interpreters-reporters/interpreters_information.html

Although the court will attempt to provide interpreters in the case types above, interpreters are not mandated in those situations and the court may not be able to fill all requests for an interpreter, due to cost and interpreter availability constraints.

The court continues to provide court interpreters at no cost to parties with limited English proficiency in criminal, traffic, juvenile delinquency, juvenile dependency, and other mandated case types.
